

Please do not change the rules concerning media consolidation to keep our media diverse and as democratic as possible. At least postpone the vote to allow for sufficient public comment and input in the process.